

Frédéric Hélein

Institut de Mathématiques de Jussieu – Paris Rive Gauche (UMR CNRS 7586)
& Professor at the University Denis Diderot–Paris 7

Born in April 22, 1963 in Versailles, France ; married, two children

1986 : Diplome of the Ecole Polytechnique

1987 : Master in Numerical Analysis at the University Paris VI

1989 : PhD in Mathematics, Ecole Polytechnique

1991 : Habilitation thesis, from the University Paris-Sud ; Full Professor at the Ecole Normale Supérieure de Cachan.

1997 : Member of the Institut Universitaire de France, until August 2002.

2003 : Full Professor at the University Denis Diderot–Paris 7.

Distinctions :

1991 : Verdaguer Price from the French Academy of Sciences of Paris ;

1994 : Cours Peccot at the Collège de France ;

1998 : Invited speaker at the International Congress of Mathematicians in Berlin ;

1999 : Fermat Prize of research in Mathematics.

Main responsibilities in the last ten years :

- President of several Recruitment Committees in Mathematics of the University Paris Diderot, from 2007 to 2014
- Chair of the Fédération de recherche mathématiques de Paris Centre (FR 2830) from January to October 2009.
- Member of the Board of the Institut Henry Poincaré from 2010 to 2014.
- Scientific Chair of the National Network of Mathematics Library (RNBM, GDS 2755) since January 2012.
- Correspondent for the Scientific and Technical Information in CNRS for Mathematics since January 2013.
- Member of the Scientific Committee of the INSMI (Mathematics Institut in the CNRS) since 2015.